Board honors retirees, talks Wrigley school plans at mtg.

Renovations underway at damaged football field and tennis courts

By Miranda M. Cantrell

The Morgan County Board of Education during its regular June 28 meeting honored three retirees for their years of service to the school system.

Among those recognized were longtime district employees Sheena Harper and Avanell Adams and Carolyn Bishop.

Board members heard an update on the construction of the new Wrigley Elementary School, which Superintendent of Schools Deatrah Barnett said is on schedule.

"The new school is coming along very well," Barnett said. "We are meeting our timelines and might be even a little Barnett also discussed renovations to the tornado-damaged football field, which will include new bleachers and lighting.

"The football field should be ready for the first game of the season," Barnett said. "The materials will be delivered soon, and the new press box is also up. We will also be doing more renovations in the future."

Future permanent improvements will include locker rooms for the home and visiting teams, public restrooms and a concession and ticket sales stand.

Board members also approved a BG-1 application regarding repairs to the Kiwanis Park tennis court, which was damaged by the March 2

"The tennis court will be resurfaced," Barnett said. "It will also get new lights and new been ordered."

Court renovations will be finished in time for the MCHS tennis team's annual fundraising tournament in August.

The following is a complete listing of meeting minutes:

Attendance was taken at 6:35 p.m. with board members Esther Cain, Patty Hutchinson, Marshall Jenkins, Brian Lindon and Ralph Smith present.

Superintendent of Schools Deatrah Barnett was also in attendance.

The meeting was called to order by Board Chair Patty Hutchinson. There was no discussion from the floor.

Three-In-One Yellow Squash

Martha Lewis, of Kristen Lane, just off Hwy. 519, stopped by The Courier Office last week to show this unusual yellow squash that she and her husband, Bernal, grew in their garden this year. It appears that three squash have grown together to make one. Martha said there were several other squash on the vines but this was the only one growing together. In addition to her vegetables and yellow squash, Martha is also growing pumpkins and cushaw.

LVRECC receives fed. loan approval for $19.7 million

Funds are for 189 mi. distribution line and smart grid technology

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 11 — Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack today announced that rural electric cooperatives and utilities in 15 states will receive loan guarantees to make improvements to generation implement smart grid technolo-

The $287 million in loan guarantees are provided by USDA Rural Development's Rural Utilities Service (RUS) and includes support for more than $10 million in smart grid technologies that help utility companies make efficiency improvements to the electric grid and help consumers lower their electric bills by reducing energy use in homes and businesses.

"Maintaining and upgrading rural electric systems creates jobs and supports economic development," Vilsack said. "These loans I am announcing today will have a lasting impact on the rural landscape for generations to come. They will help ensure that rural areas can retain existing businesses, support new ones and have reliable, up-to-date infrastructure."

In Kentucky, State Director for Rural Development Tom Fern said the Licking Valley Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation in West Liberty will use funds to build and improve 186 miles of distribution line and make other system improvements, serving 1,250 customers. The $19.7 million loan guarantee for LVRECC includes $689,227 in smart grid projects. Funding is contingent upon the recipient meeting the terms of the loan agreement.

"Utility services are the foundation of rural infrastructure and the Kentucky project will help in the development and commercialization of vital utility services in those rural communities," said Fern. "These investments support long-term prosperity by ensuring that rural communities have the basic infrastructure to become self-sustaining with the ability to compete in the global economy."

The funding helps electric utilities upgrade, expand, maintain and replace rural America's electric infrastructure. USDA Rural Development also funds energy conservation and renewable energy projects.

The Obama Administration has set goals of modernizing infrastructure by providing broadband access to 10 million Americans, expanding educational opportunities for students in rural areas and providing affordable health care. In the long term, these unparalleled rural investments will help ensure that America's rural communities are repopulating, self-sustaining and thriving economically.

Motorcyclist killed in collision with pickup truck

A motorcyclist was killed on Saturday, June 30, in a collision with a pickup truck pulling a trailer at the intersection of Ohio 302 and U.S. 42 in northeastern Ashland County, Ohio.

The Ashland post of the Ohio State Highway Patrol says Wendell Scott Stamper, 44, of Springfield, Ohio, died in the accident.

The patrol says Stamper was riding his motorcycle north on U.S. 42 and struck the driver's side of a pickup truck at the intersection of Ohio 302, driven by Garry Press, 65, of Winter Park, Florida.

The collision happened when Press stopped at a stop sign at the intersection, then pulled into the path of the motorcycle.

The patrol says Stamper, who was not wearing a helmet, was thrown from the motorcycle as he tried to avoid the collision and laid the motorcycle down with the bike striking the pickup.

Press is charged with vehicular manslaughter and is scheduled for arraignment Tuesday in Ashland Municipal Court.

Mr. Stamper was a grandson of the late Andy and Lillian Wright, who resided in Morgan County.

Inmates at Rowan Detention Center say rights violated

MOREHEAD, Ky. - Inmates at the Rowan County Detention Center say a new mail policy adopted recently at the Morehead facility violates their rights.

The policy permits inmates to receive only metered postcards, which inmates claim hinders communication with and creates financial hardship on their families.

Jailer Don Hull said the policy was adopted n response to repeated attempts by senders to smuggle contraband items through the mail.

As an example, Hull pointed to a picture postcard recently sent to the jail. The postage stamp was peeled back to reveal a strip of buprenorphine better known as Suboxone, tucked beneath.

Inmates complained that families are not aware of the change and that mail sent to the jail that doesn't conform to the new policy is returned to sender.

I remember as a child playing after the work day was done, we didn't have the technology of today such as IPods and IPads. Instead, we busied ourselves outside looking and hearing opposed to becoming lost in the cyber world.

Black top roads were inaccessible, we played for hours on dirt and gravel in the hot sun, and it was rare if boredom ever came about. Playing the evenings away with hop scotch, freeze tag, jumping in the hay, or anything else that may accompany our attention for a

Hello from Judge Tim Confew more hours. God always seemed to look after us due the the dangers that we were so familiar with... for instance, snakes and heavy tools; and still no one was ever hurt really bad, thanks to God's watchful eyes.

I remember one incident where Linda had a pitch fork sever through her foot and Joe had an 8 pound sledge hammer fall on his head. These may appear to be severe, but the injuries were minor due to all that we played around. Life back then was good, it was plain and simple, and afternoons were rarely spent inside.

Those days are the ones that make the best memories for not only me, but my kids as well. Morgan football wins big from Morehead gaming

July 10, 2012 — Thanks to a new game called "Queen of Hearts", the Morehead Optimist Club is giving $10,000 to help rebuild the tornado-ravaged football field used by Morgan County High School.

Bill Redwine of the Optimist Club said 70 percent of the "Queen of Hearts" jackpot goes to the lucky player with the club keeping the balance of 30 percent.

He said the Optimists had decided several weeks ago to give its share of the jackpot to the Morgan County football

"We never dreamed the jackpot would get that large before a winner but it's a great way to help the school system and the community," he added. "We get lots of bingo players from Morgan County and this is a way to thank them for helping us help others." Morgan County School Supt. Deatrah Barnett was thrilled by the news of the surprise gift from the Optimists.

"This is such wonderful and unexpected news," she said Monday. "We hope to have the field back in use for the opening game in August and this money will be a big help.'

Barnett said the March 2 tornado destroyed the high school's football equipment, lights, bleachers, scoreboard, press box, dressing rooms, concession stands and playing field.

"This is another example of the positive things that have happened to us because of the goodness of others," she added.

The Morehead Optimist Club is among the community organizations with a charitable gaming license in Rowan County. The club's members operate Čave Run Bingo on Friday and Saturday nights.

Frances Wallace of Morehead walked away with most of the jackpot of $20,333 in the game of chance which is part of the Optimists' charitable gaming efforts to raise money for youth activities in the area.

Commissioner Comer urges livestock and grain producers to take precautions culture Commissioner James Comer expressed grave concerns for Kentucky's livestock producers and corn growers and cautioned them to take steps to protect themselves from potential losses. Comer said that drought-stricken corn silage could contain toxic levels of nitrogen. If fed to livestock, this corn silage could be fatal.

"I am not going to sugarcoat the severity of this situation," said Commissioner Comer, who raises beef cattle on his farm in Monroe County. "I am very concerned for all our producers and their families."

The Kentucky field office of the National Agriculture Statistics Service reported that, as of Sunday, 72 percent of Kentucky's corn crop and 76 percent of the Commonwealth's pastures were rated poor or very poor. Commissioner Comer said some corn stalks aren't producing ears, which has led many growers, especially those in western Kentucky, to consider chopping their corn into silage to salvage some value.

"Feeding silage can help

FRANKFORT, Ky.--Agri- livestock producers who need to feed their animals because their pastures are suffering from the dry weather," Commissioner Comer said. "But producers should be careful about feeding corn silage until they have determined that the nitrogen content is at an acceptable level." The University of Kentucky Agricultural Weather Center stated Monday that western Kentucky and the bluegrass region are in extreme hydrological drought while central and eastern Kentucky are in severe drought. Western Kentucky would need more than 16 inches of rain to end the drought according to UK. Because it does not appear that this drought will abate anytime soon, Commissioner Comer urged farmers who have federal crop insurance to check in with their adjusters before making any major deci-

4-H had a hot Longest Day of Play but it was a splash!

On June 30, 2012, Morgan County 4-H hosted the Longest Day of Play. The event began at Old Mi Park with games, and some water gun fun. Due to the heat our plans we headed onto the Kiwanis Pool. While at the pool we enjoyed hotdogs for lunch, delicious watermelon, and then ended the evening with pizza. While at the pool we played with noodles, beach balls, and the kids even got to jump off the lifeguard stand. Despite the heat we had a great turnout of 23 kids and enjoyed a wonderful "Longest Day of Play". Shown on top some of the youth anticipating the splash at the kiddie pool!! Picture on the bottom are the Longest Day of Play kids relaxing in the pool, and Cole Dalton making a jump off the lifeguard chair.

TO THINE OWN SELF BE TRUE

The better life cannot be imposed from without--it must grow from within. The greatest thing in the world is to know how to belong to oneself. Let me listen to me and not to them. Be the most you can be. So life will be more because you were. Don't let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do. Stand tall, and the world will rise up with you. You are the product of your own brain storm.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me And I'm not here to see. If the sun should rise and find your eyes, Filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry, The way you did today. While thinking of the many things, We didn't get to say.

I know how much you loved me,

And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

As much as I love you.

without me, Please try to understand, that an angel came And called my name and took

July 16--Greetings from the Junction.

I, like many, have probably been miserable in this hot, summer heat that we have had. It is good that the rain has come and relieved us of those hot temperatures and given the crops a good, healthy drink. Paula Adkins, of Hwy. 437, lost her dog last week and still has not found him. His name is Licorice. He is gray and white, pomapoo, with lots of curls. He is very timid around people. Please look in your buildings and barns. He will not bite. Call 522-4448 if you find him. Congratulations to Josh and rain without an overcast sky. So you see, it takes the shadows, the sunshine and the rain. Just like it takes your tears to harvest golden grain. Your tears are touching God when you cry them from your heart. Yes, He knows when you're broken inside. There's a feeling, only God knows The burdens that you bear. And your tears are touching God when you cry. One day the Savior stood upon the Mount of Olives overlooking Jerusalem. He wept. If to Him we will go to, He will hasten to our rescue. For He knows how it feels to cry.

Broadway First Church Of God Ephesians 2:19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. We use to be foreigners of the heavenly country but after being saved we become a citizen of that heavenly country, praise God. The message came from Acts 22:22-30 where Paul was giving his defense for preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ when the crowd became a riot and the chief captain had to get Paul away from them. He didn't know what the uproar was about and in order to find out he order to have Paul scourged. After they had bound Paul, Paul ask, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?" Paul was a Roman citizen by birth which gave him a right to appeal his case before Caesar before anything could be done to him.

We live in the greatest country in the world regardless of all the faults we may have. If born on American soil you become an American citizen and have all the rights that any other American citizen has. If you are not a citizen you can become one by following the guide lines that have been set forth by our laws. Many have come to this country to gain the freedom and the hope of a better life than what they had.

The first place we find any form of the word free used in the bible is in Genesis 2:16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest (freely) eat: Then verse 17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. God gave man a choice, he was free to eat of any tree but God gave a law that came with that freedom. God is still giving us a choice today. Adam's choice has been past upon all mankind. Romans 5:12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. We lost our rights to that heavenly country and are sojourners of this earth. We are looking for something better that what this world has to offer. Hebrews 11:16 But now they desire a better country, that is an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. So the question is "How do we become a citizen of this heavenly country?"

In our text the chief captain after finding out that Paul was a Roman said,"With a great sum obtained I this freedom. Paul replied,"But I was free born." You can't buy your way in,can't work your way in, or can't educate your way into this heavenly country, you have to be born into it. Jesus said in John 3:6 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Have you been born again and became a citizen of that heavenly country? Come worship with us, we preach about things like this.

For prayer requests or comments contact us by phone at 743-4736 or e-mail karleeelam@hotmail.com we'll be glad to hear from you. Until next week, may the Lord bless you is our prayer.

Growing up we all heard Goes On". about family, friends, and neighbors stopping by and pickin' a few tunes and visitin' and eatin' a bite, just all around having a great time. Well, that is what happened at my house this past

We had gone up to the Lanny Franklin Memorial Old Mill Bluegrass Festival and enjoyed some fine music, and then returned home to enjoy some more fine music. We had Clarence Kelly and his band, NuCut Road, which consists of Missy Daly, Carl Caldwell, Randy Holland, and Don Hill, and of course, we can't forget Paula, Clarence's wife. She keeps them going. We couldn't do without

We also had songwriter, Dale Pyatt. He has a great song on the

Then we had one of my favorite singers of all times, Wilbur Carpenter! Yep Wilbur and Pauline came down and they picked and sang until way after dark. Pickers brought their wives and families and we had neighbors and family come by to enjoy it with us. We had the Goodpaster boys--Jr., David, Thomas, and Alex; we had (my sister), Ruby Smith Digonno all the way from Hamilton, Ohio; we had Clarence and Rhonda Gilliam, from Sandy Hook; we had Bert Harper, Ronald Mc-Guire, and we even had Tom Standafer.

What makes this so special is Daddy's two favorite singers and my two favorite singers are the same. Yep, you guessed it... Clarence and Wilbur. Clarence charts right now called "Life has such a unique voice and sound with a range you don't find every day. Wilbur, I do believe, could sing the phonebook if you asked him to. We are blessed to have such talent

We had bologna sandwiches, chips, dips, maters, cake, ice cream and watermelon... everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. I know I sure did. It' isn't every day you get that quality of entertainment on your own front porch. As I finish this little article, I would like to thank the committee of the Old Mill Park for having the festival this year! It has been a difficult few months for us all. Thanks again committee!

Watch the newspaper for information on Clarence's upcoming festival. Until next time may God bless you and keep you. Liz Smith Phipps

June activity report issued by Morehead State Police Post

Kentucky State Police at Post 8 Morehead has issued its final traffic and criminal activity report for June 2012.

During June Post 8 personnel issued 1977 citations. Of those citations, 44 were for DUI, 296 were for speeding, 171 for no seat belt, and 21 for child restraint violations.

In addition, 1,873 vehicle inspections were conducted and 364 courtesy notices issued. Post 8 also investigated 55 traffic collisions of which there were three fatalities, two in Powell County and one in Bath County. Post 8 personnel also investigated 1,263 complaints. A total of 79 criminal cases were opened and a total of 410 criminal arrests were made for the month. A total of six educational programs were conducted.

Additionally, Captain Bobby D. Murray, Commander of the Kentucky State Police at Morehead, announces that Troopers of the Morehead Post will be conducting Safety Checkpoints in addition to Moving Patrols throughout the Post 8 area during the entire month of July as well the remainder of the year 2012. Motorists are urged to be cautious and obey reduced speeds through road constructions, especially on I-64 East/ West bound lanes in Montgomery County.

This concentrated enforcement effort will utilize Troopers and Detectives assigned to and working the Morehead post area. Members of the Commercial Vehicle Enforcement (CVE) will also be utilized. They will focus on enforcing violations of speeding, no seat belt, child restraint, impaired driving laws, and texting while driving, as well as other violations of the traffic laws of Ken-

Students should check KEES accts. for accuracy

FRANKFORT, Ky. (June 29)--Kentucky high school students and 2012 graduates should check their Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES) accounts for accurancy.

KEES allows students toe arn money for college by getting good grades in high school and for qualifying scores on the ACT or SAT. Students eligible for free or reduced lunches may also earn awards for good scores on Advanced Placement and International Baccalaureate exams. KEES is administeredy by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA).

to check awards and personal information, students need to use the Zip Access function on www.kheaa.com. If they do not already have a Zip Access account, they can easily set one up from the KHEAA home page.

students may verify their KEES GPA is correct by taking the letter grade for each course taken during the year and converting it to a 4.0 scale on which at A=4.0, B=3.0, C=2.0, D=1.0, and F=0. AP and IB course grades receive one extra point of weight in the calculation, making an A=5.0, B=4.0, etc. The GPA is calculated by adding all the points together and dividing the total by the number of credits earned during the year.

Students who need to ahve GPAs or other information corrected should contact their school counselor.

If students do not see any KEES information, they should call the KHEAA College Access Team at (800) 928-8926.

Students do not have to apply to receive their KEES awards. If they attend al eligible college or university, KHEAA will send their award to the school once the school verifies enrollment.

Morgan ARH MEDICAL Moment

Eat Good Food, Not Too Much

If you're concerned about nutrition, you know the good guys from the bad guys: oat bran, beta-carotene and antioxidant vitamins versus red meat, fats and sugar. Read the reports of research, though, and you'll often be disappointed. Several studies of antioxidants such as beta-carotene and vitamin E failed to find the cancer preventing effects that were expected. And results of the Women's Health Initiative Dietary Modification Trial were equally disappointing. In this study, nearly 20,000 women were randomly assigned to follow a low-fat diet, reducing their total fat intake from 38 percent to 29 percent of daily calories. Eight years later, results showed none of the expected benefits. The women following the low-fat diet had no reduced risk of breast cancer, colorectal cancer or cardiovascular disease. And their weights were generally the same as those of women in the control group who continued their regular diets.

What does it all mean? Are you better off going back to burgers and fries? Actually, no. If you're over 40, one look at your high school yearbook will tell you that there are more overweight Americans today than there were 20 years ago. Children and adolescents are being diagnosed with type 2 diabetes, once found primarily in adults in their 50s and 60s. Of the top 10 killers of Americans, at least 4 are diet related.

Food writer Michael Pollan is not surprised by the disappointing results of nutrition studies because the focus of such research is invariably on nutritional substances rather than whole foods. Pollan prefers to keep it simple: eat food, not too much, mostly plants.

GOOD FOOD, according to Pollan's definition, is simply real food as opposed to the food-like substances that line the shelves of supermarkets. That means food that is fresh, unprocessed, preferably grown in your own garden or produced by farmers near your home rather than manufacturers. Corn on the cob or corn tortillas are foods that your grandparents would recognize and eat. Corn curls and high fructose corn syrup are another category altogether.

Hippocrates said, "Let food be your medicine," but that shouldn't keep you from enjoying yourself at the table. The French, Italians and Greeks have food-loving cultures. And even though they may eat more saturated fat and drink more alcohol than Americans do, they are generally thinner and healthier.

Fresh whole foods bought at the Farmer's Market may be a bit more expensive; they have been grown with more care and less attention to high yield and long shelf life. But they taste better. Try a real egg from a chicken that has been allowed ro roam freely, and you'll never go back to the kind that come from egg laying factories.

NOT SO MUCH: People in traditional cultures, where obtaining enough food is sometimes a challenge, generally have no problem with obesity. They eat less meat and more rice, beans and vegetables...because that is what they can afford. And they are healthier as a result.

In American culture, unfortunately, those at the bottom of the socioeconomic chain are less able to afford fresh, whole foods. As a result, they are at the mercy of the food producers who offer inexpensive food products that are high in calories as well as sodium, trans fats and saturated foods. Corn curls will fill the stomach fast at a low cost.

But it's not just poor Americans who are getting fat. According to one theory, Americans started gaining weight when they started following the low-fat, high starch regimen that became popular during the 1980s and 1990s. Calories count, and many Americans who tried to follow an overly austere approach to fats compensated by adding high-calorie MOSTLY PLANTS: If you've ever followed a Weight Watchers' plan, you know that most fruits and vegetables cost you virtually nothing in terms of points or calories. They are also the good guys in terms of nutrition.

The American diet that has led to weight and health problems is based on meat and potatoes with a token vegetable or two (such as lettuce and tomato on a burger). A more sensible diet starts with the vegetables and fills in with smaller quantities of meat and starches.

but a better choice for many is "flexitarian"-plant centered but with modest amounts of meat, fish and poultry. Whole grains, dairy products and nuts round out the good foods that should be part of any healthy diet. Cindy Crager, egetarianism is often cited as a heart-healthy habit,

Caney Valley News

By Tracey B. Hatton

July 16--Hello again from Caney Valley. There are many among us who are sick or afflicted. We need to pray, and pray earnestly. 1 look around and see couples that have been married for either a long time or even a short time. When sickness invades a marriage, then what? When sickness invades their lives it can either bring a couple closer or place a wedge in their relationship. It depends on different factors. Factors that play a significant part in these times does that individual(s) have God in their life? Does each spouse know the Lord as their savior? Are they placing their trust in Him? We are all guilty of "finding and fix" the solution. We need to put God first and seek for guidance. The Lord, He will give strength to the weary and increase power to the weak. If a spouse is so sick they do not have the ability to offer up prayers due to being critically ill, allow yourself to stand in the gap. Be there praying humbly to God, holding their hand, wiping their brow. If your spouse may have an illness that has interrupted their daily living and even their job or vocation ability, then both of you seek God first for yourself then pray as a couple for strength. We never know the hour or the moment when sickness will come upon us. I do know that we all need to be ready to meet God.

In Psalm 46:1, "God is our refuge and strength a very present help in trouble." If our spouse is in need of a spiritual relationship with Christ and their soul is spiritually sick, pray, stand in the gap. In Mark 2:17, "When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: 1 came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." As a couple, whatever the situation may be, allow God to strengthen you in sickness and in health.

Prayer Requests: H.A. and Margaret Wallace, Cecil and Patty Griffin, Woodford and Berchlene Henry, Bro. Hobart and Betty Dunn, Jack and Margie Flannery, Reva Shepherd, Lennie Ross, Hunter Lewis, Brandon Bailey, Mary Honchul, Stanley and Avanell Whisman, ones that are in the hospital and nursing homes.

Happy Birthdays: Patty Barker Griffin, B.J. Hatton, Bob Roseberry, Jenna Frederick, Woodford Henry, Braxton Hager, Rosemary Hibbins, Renella Elam, and Tena Lawson.

Happy Anniversary: Congratulations 1 year anniversary to Nathan and Lacy Long. Condolences to Emory

Smith's family. May the Lord heal your heart during your time of loss.

May God bless and keep you and take the Lord along with you.

July 16--We extend our deepest sympathy to the families of Harold Dallas Barker, Ray Terrell, Emory Smith, Lena M. Williams, of Medway, Ohio, and to all others who have lost Mrs. Mickie Vance and daughter, Bryleigh, of Lexington, recently visited with Estelle and Louise Caskey. Mrs. Julia Johnson, Mrs.

Patty Shoop, of Dayton, Ohio,

Mrs. Tonya Johnson; and, Mrs. Rose Ison recently visited with Estelle and Louise Caskey. Estelle and Louise Caskey visited last Sunday with Mrs. Joyce Ferguson and Mrs. Reva

Hutchinson. Mrs. Patty Shoop, of Dayton, Ohio, spent a few days last week visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Julia Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrick Ratliff and son, Garrison Lee, of Morehead, were Wednesday guests of Mrs. Joyce Ferguson.

Family members and friends visiting last week with Mrs. Julia Johnson included Dennis Johnson and Debbie Prater, of Salyersville, Mr. and Mrs. Farrol Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. Tim Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Johnson; Mrs. Bernice M. Bolin; and Mrs. Josephine O'Neal. Mrs. Frances DeHart, of

Ft. Mitchell, Mrs. Ruth Wells, Mrs. Linda Fowler and daughter, Kristen, of Ashland; Mrs. Caroline Ramey and daughters, Grace, Regan, and Carley, of Burlington; Mrs. Cindy Austin; Mrs. Christy McEver and daughter, Ashlyn, and Mrs. Billie Perkins, of Marietta Georgia, were vacationing last week in Destin, Florida. Dale DeHart, of Ft. Mitchell, and William A. (Jr.) Davis, of Xenia, Ohio, visited here last week with family members and Mrs. Josephine O'Neal attended the Lanny Franklin Bluegrass Festival on Saturday and Sunday, and reports an enjoyable meeting with several ladies of Christ, Cincinnati, Ohio. We send our heartiest get well wishes to Mrs. Julia Johnson, who reportedly is not feeling so well.

New laws went in effect July 12

FRANKFORT -- New laws approved during the Kentucky General Assembly's 2012 regular session go into effect on

The new laws mean copper thieves won't be able to sell stolen materials for quick cash at recycling centers. Passengers in large vans will no longer be exempt from the state's seat belt law. And meth producers will have a harder time getting large amounts of a key ingredient needed to make their illegal

The Kentucky Constitution states that legislation approved by the General Assembly goes into effect as state law 90 days after a legislative session ends, unless a bill specifies a different effective date or contains an emergency clause that makes it effective as soon as it is signed by the governor.

This year's regular session adjourned on April 12.

Among the issues covered by laws that go into effect July 12 are the following:

Blue Alert. Senate Bill 32 will establish a statewide emergency alert system to catch those suspected of injuring a police officer. The "Blue Alert" system, which is modeled after the Amber Alert system, will use law enforcement communication systems, electronic highway signs and media to spread information to catch perpetrators after an officer has been reported wounded or Coal mine safety. House Bill 385 will enforce new rules for miners who fail drug or alcohol tests. Offenders will be ineligible to hold mining licenses or certificates for three years. Penalties are more severe for repeat offenders.

Coal truck drivers. HB 411 will designate the Monday of the fourth week in August as Coal Truck Driver Appreciation Day.

Concealed deadly weapons. HB 484 will allow Kentuckians to carry concealed weapons without a license on their property or place of business.

Copper theft. HB 390 will help curb theft of copper and other valuable metals by ensuring thieves don't get immediate cash for the stolen goods at recycling centers. Instead, after showing proof of ownership, a check will be mailed to those selling certain metals to recycling centers. The legislation will also ensure that recycling centers receive reports on recently stolen metal items in the area so they can be on the lookout. The bill does not affect individuals recycling aluminum cans.

Confederate pensions. HB 85 will remove from the law books outdated language regarding pensions for Confederate soldiers.

Consumer protection. HB 421 will protect homeowners from being defrauded by providing a five-day grace period to cancel a signed roofing contract if the homeowner's insurance policy does not cover the repair work.

Diplomas. SB 43 will provide diplomas to students with disabilities who finish modified Emergency room safety. SB 58 will allow officers to make arrests for misdemeanor assault with probable cause if the crime occurs in a hospital emergency room. Under current law, emergency rooms aren't exempt from the requirement that an officer must witness a misdemeanor assault in order to make an arrest.

Ethics. HB 402 will allow the Executive Branch Ethics Commission to share evidence with the state Personnel Board or the Auditor of Public Accounts if the information is needed for the agencies' inves-

For-profit postsecondary schools. HB 308 will establish a new panel to regulate private for-profit colleges and universities in Kentucky. The legislation will replace the Kentucky Board for Proprietary Education with the Kentucky Commission on Proprietary Education and will limit the schools' membership to four seats. The legislation also calls for the creation of a compensation fund (paid for by the industry) for grievances of eligible Kentucky students and a revised student complaint review process.

Meth labs. SB 3 will boost efforts to stop production of methamphetamines by tightening rules on the purchase of certain cold and allergy medicines that contain an ingredient needed to make meth. The legislation will decrease the current monthly over-the-counter purchase limit of ephedrine and pseudoephedrine in pill or tablet forms from 9 grams to 7.2 grams and impose a 24 gram yearly limit. The measure will also replace the paper-tracking system currently in place for the purchase of medicines containing ephedrine and pseudoephedrine with a mandatory electronic system that will allow more real-time tracking.

National Guard Assistance Program. HB 224 will make Kentucky National Guard members eligible for financial assistance to help pay child adoption costs.

Personal-care homes. SB 115 will require a medical examination that includes a medical history, physical examination and diagnosis prior to admission to a personal-care

POW/M1A flags. HB 121 will require Prisoner of War and Missing in Action flags purchased or displayed by public institutions to be made in the United States.

School facilities. SB 110 will make it easier for school districts to allow community access to school facilities for recreational use during nonschool hours by protecting the schools from liability in cases where an injury occurs.

Seat belts. SB 89 will expand Kentucky's seat belt law to include 15-person passenger vans. The bill was filed in response to a 2010 crash on 1-65 near Munfordville that killed 11 people, most of whom weren't wearing seat belts. Current state law only requires seat belt use in vehicles designed to carry ten or fewer passengers.

Speed limits. HB 439 will allow the Transportation Cabinet to increase the speed limit on 1-69 in Western Kentucky to 70 miles per hour.

Veterans' licenses. HB 221 will allow veterans to have their service designated on driver's licenses and state identification cards. The designations will make it easier for veterans to show proof of service needed for various discounts and special services available to them.

War memorial. HB 256 will establish a committee responsible for oversight of construction and upkeep of an Iraq/Afghanistan War Memorial.

Wild hogs. HB 344 will impose stiffer penalties on those who release feral hogs into the wild. The state's growing feral pig population is a threat to farmland, natural habitats and human health, experts say.

West Liberty's Only Remaining Floral Shop Has Relocated

West Liberty, KY

By Miranda M. Cantrell

Many entrepreneurs found themselves without storefronts following the March 2 tornado, which destroyed the All Occasion Flowers shop that was once housed at 541 Main St.

Owner Cheryl McKenzie moved her business to her home following the storm that damaged all of her merchandise.

"There wasn't much left," McKenzie said. "The building was damaged beyond repair, and most of my materials were destroyed by water or broken glass. So I had to move the shop to my garage." All Occasion Flowers – currently the only floral shop in West Liberty – is now located at 1161

Old Hwy. 172, approximately one mile from the former Giovanni's restaurant site. "I have been busy with a lot of floral arrangements for funerals," McKenzie said. "Most of my business is conducted over the phone, but I miss the walk-in customers who visited my Main Street shop." McKenzie, who was not in the shop when the tornado hit, noted that she had worked as a florist on Main Street for 36 years prior to the tornado.

"I opened All Occasion Flowers in 1989," McKenzie said. "But I had previously worked at Blossom Floral for 13 years. Moving away from Main Street was a big adjustment."

The move did not limit McKenzie's products and services, as she continues to offer fresh cut and silk flowers in addition to gift items including afghans, candles, stuffed animals and primitive pieces.

McKenzie predicted that the return of local businesses will bolster the post-tornado economy. "It will take time to get things back in order," McKenzie said. "Town will never be the same again, but I believe it could be even better than before."

All Occasion Flowers business hours are 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday and 10 a.m.-12 p.m. Saturday. For more information, call Cheryl McKenzie at 743-2525 or visit her shop at 1161 Old Hwy. 172.

This Quail Needs a Mate

How long has it been since you have heard the distinct call of the"Bob White" in West Liberty? If you are an early morning walker on Riverside Drive you have been hearing the call of a lonesome quail. While I am writing this he is close to my back yard and I am listening to his call. I don't know what it means but I am assuming he is hoping a female quail will answer him.

A couple of mornings ago I stepped out on my carport to begin my daily walk and it sounded as if the bird was in my front yard, but I couldn't see him. After looking around while being as still as I could, I spied him across the street on Reva Hutchinson's roof! I went back into the house, got my camera and started taking photos of him. He was so tame that I could walk into the middle of the street to photograph him and he never flew. I took his picture and started my walk.

I walked up the street and stopped to visit with Paul Keeton. He and his demolition crew were busy razing what was left after the tornado of the county Extension Service building. I showed Paul a picture of the quail on my camera and he said that it probably was one of Paul Ferguson's birds. As luck would have it,

Paul Ferguson works for Paul. He lost his house on Johnson Hill during the tornado and his bird coop where he raised quail. His wife and children were in the house but weren't hurt but the coop where he raised quail was destroyed and the birds were gone. They are scattered all over town, about 60 of them.

I just heard the call of the quail again while I was writing this and it sounded as if he was just outside the window. I stepped out of the house and saw him across the drive at the telephone company. He was so tame I got within three feet of him. I noticed he had a crippled left foot, which Paul Ferguson called a "crooked toe."

He said that out of a couple hundred birds hatched in an incubator about five will have crooked toes. He verified that the bird was male. He is the one that calls "bob white" and the female answers with just one whistle. I poured out some bird feed for the quail and he immediately began to eat. Hopefully, he will stay around until he finds himself a mate. It is now afternoon and the quail is in an apple tree beside my house that stands along Blair Street. He seems happy, sitting on a large limb and whistling "bob white." Maybe he thought if he got in a tree he could project his call over a larger area. So I figured if he is going to stay with us I might as well make him comfortable. I have fixed him a food pan and water dish just below the limb he has adopted as his roost.

I sure hope he finds himself a good mate shortly as I am beginning to feel sorry for Local student to participate in natl. scholars program

This summer, high-achieving elementary school students will take part in the National Young Scholars Program (NYSP). Held on campuses across the United States, NYSP inspires outstanding 3rd, 4th and 5th grade students to explore, invent, learn and think creatively.

Among these will be Julia Wells of West Liberty, daughter of Scott Wells, who will participate in the program from July 29 to Aug. 2 at the National 4-H Youth Conference Center in Chevy Chase, Md. "The National Young Scholars Program provides students with the opportunity to engage in hands-on interactive learning, while challenging them in an intellectually stimulating environment outside of the regular classroom," said Dr. Marguerite C. Regan, Dean of Academic Affairs for the Program. Throughout the Program, young students engage in challenging coursework, gain a greater sense of independence and experience a renaissance of learning. The Program culminates with student-created projects tying in leadership skills learned with the discoveries made in their specific area of study."NYSP taps into the natural curiosity that students at this young age already have," said Dr. Regan. "This program will help them continue down a path toward a lifelong love of learning.'

NYSP is dedicated to identifying, inspiring and honoring the nation's most promising elementary school students. The Program is comprised of highly successful practitioners in the field of elementary education who boast more than 25 years of experience in implementing successful education programs for students.

World-Class Heart Care

LETTER FROM A FRIEND

Dear Earl,

I have started this letter to you many times since the 2nd of March but couldn't find the words to express the ache in my heart or the pride I felt for your handling your pain and loss after the tornado. I'm sure you never gave a thought about the people far and wide that were praying for you and all the others in West Liberty.

I spent days trying to reach my family by phone, hours on the computer and watching TV for any news. Finally on Tuesday Lynn Nickell called with the good news that my family was safe. The people of West Liberty were on my church's pray list.

Your effort in getting the paper printed and in the mail was greatly appreciated. Just saying 'thank you" seems so trivial, but it comes sincerely. Enclosed is my check for another year for news from home.

Best regards, Pauline Blair Scott Largo, Fla.

CITY OF WEST LIBERTY ORDINANCE #07232012-01

An ordinance providing for the installation of Listed Rapid Entry Key Boxes, Hazardous Materials Cabinets, Key Switches, Security Padlocks, and Fire Sprinkler Security Connection Caps, for use by the Fire Department to gain access to a structure that pose a safety threat due to alarm or any other action as deemed necessary by the Fire Chief or his designee. Whereas, many properties are equipped with automatic alarm systems and/or sprinkler/ standpipe systems, and these automatic systems may cause the West Liberty Fire Department to be summoned at a time when the building or business is not occupied or when the occupant is not available to provide entry for the fire department; and

Whereas, the City of West Liberty wishes to prevent damage from forceful entry in to structures and provide swift entry into structures by the Fire Department; and

Whereas, the Uniform Fire Code 18.2.2.1 provides that any Fire Department may require certain occupancies to maintain a Rapid Access system as prescribed by the Fire Department: the West Liberty Fire Department finds a need to establish such a Rapid Entry System for the City of West Liberty, and any areas covered by the West Liberty Fire Department,

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the City Council of the City of West Liberty, KY.

Section 1. Definitions: FIRE OFFICIAL: The Fire Chief or his designee.

FIRE DISTRICT: The normal fire protection district both ed covered by the West Liberty TIONS rire Department. RESPONSIBLE PARTY: The person(s) charged with the responsibility for the occupancy, building or business owner. KEY BOX: A UL "Listed" box, size and style, approved by the Fire Official that meets the requirements and uses the same security key code adopted by the Fire Department.

SECURITY PADLOCK: A padlock approved by the Fire Official that utilizes the approved key code utilized by the Fire Department.

SECURITY PADLOCK: A padlock approved by the Fire Official that utilizes the approved key code utilized by the Fire Department. SECURITY CAP: A Fire Department Connection (FDC) Plug and Cap approved for use in the City of West Liberty by the Fire Official utilizing 2 1/2" National Standard thread pattern.

When a building within the Fire District is protected by an automatic fire suppression and/ or standpipe system, it shall be equipped with a Key Box, installed at a location approved by the Fire Official.

B) MANDATORY KEY BOXES FOR AUTOMATIC ALARM SYSTEMS

When a building is protected by an automatic alarm system and or access to or within a building, or an area within that building, is unduly difficult because of secured openings, and where immediate access is necessary for life saving or firefighting purposes, it shall be equipped with a Key Box, to be installed at a location approved by the Fire Official.

C) MANDATORY STOR-AGE CABINET

In Occupancies storing or dispensing Hazardous Materials, a Hazardous Materials Cabinet may be required. This cabinet will serve to store MSDS and other information as required. D) AUTOMATIC GATES

When a property is accessed through a gate or cross arm that impedes ingress through required Fire Lanes by means of a key or swipe card, it shall be equipped with a Key Switch to be installed at a location approved by the Fire Official. E) SECURITY PADLOCK

When a property is protected by a locked fence or gate and where immediate access to the property is necessary for life saving and firefighting purposes, it shall be equipped with a Security Padlock to be installed at a location approved by the Fire Official. It shall then be the responsibility of the Responsible Party to see that the fence or gate is secured properly so that the Security Padlock is accessible.

F) CONSTRUCTION SITES When a construction site is to be secured by a locked fence or gate, that site will fall under Ordinance, during the duration of construction or until said fence or gate is removed. The Security Padlock will be obtained by placing a security deposit with the Clerk of the City of West Liberty in an amount set to cover replacement of Security Padlock should it be lost or damaged. Once the deposit has been made, a Fire Official will come to the construction site and explain the use of the Security Padlock. It shall then be the responsibility of the construction company to see that the fence or gate is secured properly so that the Security Padlock is accessible.

July 16 — Thought of the week: Sometimes we don't forgive people because they deserve it. We forgive them because they need it.

Get well wishes to the sick, to all who have lost a loved one. May God's grace be upon the

I woke up Friday to a much needed rain. Good to have for the gardens, and crops. God's timing is always on time, He knows when to supply our every need.

On Thursday, July 12, I took my mother, Barbara Carpenter, to Cave Run Clinic for her hand she injured. They plan on doing out-patient surgery on Friday. It will be a small procedure to remove a hematobia on top of her hand.

While at Cave Run we ran into Juanita Pieratt who had fallen and injured her leg/foot. It was possiblly broke/cracked and she was put in a boot for the next month or so. I hope you get to feeling better and start mending soon, Juanita.

Also we saw our neighbor, Barbara Gladden and husband. We didn't get to speak, but hope you're doing ok.

Visitors of the writer have been Kay Dagnan. Good to have you. Come back again

July 4th guest of Harold Goodpaster was Kristy Goodpaster of Bardstown. She spent the night and visited with her mother Venus at at Wolfe County Rehab. Kristy's good friend, Alisha Lawson, Sonny and boys came down and had a cook out. They all had an enjoyable time. Alisha is a fine cook.

Sandra and Barbara Carpenter were in Campton last week and visited with Venus Goodpaster. She seemed to recongnize mom.

Tamera, Adam and Dalton Tate were up one day and Adam did some chores for Barbara Carpenter.

I want to send a hello out to Amy Thornsberry, a good

The writer and Barbara Carpenter were in Mt. Sterling visiting with Adam, Tamera, and Dalton one day recently.

A belated happy birthday goes out to Teresa Lindon, and Robert Peyton on July 16. Hope you had a great day.

Also a belated birthday wish to Kimberly H. Preece. Hope you enjoyed your day. The writer and Tamera Tate and Dalton were in Morehead on Sunday to pick up some supplies. While down there we ran into Brian and Melissa Lewis. Good to talk with you. Get well wishes go out to Kevin Wilson of Sharpsburg, who had a pacemaker inserted. Hope you are doing better.

July 8, Tim and momma Essie Conley stopped by to visit with Mason, Jr and Carolyn Montgomery on their way to the cemetery meeting. July 1st, Stephanie, Cody, and Skyler Goodpaster traveled to Louisville to visit with her sister, Annette Mazonni. The girls stayed for several days to visit. Glendon and Stephanie went back several days later to pick the girls up. They along with Annette's family went to Santa Claus, Indiana, to enjoy the day at the water park.

Visitors of Mason, Jr. and Carolyn Montgomery on July 9th were Phyllis and Kenneth Frische, Then, July 10, Carolyn along with Jocelyn Bolin prepared dinner for the following: Mollie and Joyce Frances, Mary Brown, Lennie Montgomery who had a birthday that day. Sara and Dan Cantrell. The next day Jeff and Lennie stopped in and had Lisa Cantrell Johnson and family visited in New York to check out some colleges for

Relay For Life of Morgan County July 27, 2012/6 p.m.-12 a.m./ Morgan County Equestrain Park relayforlife.org/MORGANKY

Join your community in the fight against cancer! At Relay For Life, teams take turns walking or running around the track. Teams consist of individuals representing corporations, churches, clubs, organizations and families. During Relay For Life, team members enjoy games, food, music and camaraderie while camping out on the surrounding grounds.

Participants also share in a special luminaria ceremony to remember those individuals who have been affected by cancer. Candles are lit in honor or memory of those touched by cancer and placed around the track. You are invited to support this effort by making a luminaria donation and having a candle lit in honor of a loved one who has been touched by cancer. Simply fill out the Luminaria order form and mail your order to the address listed on the bottom of the form.

Thank you for your support. For more information, call 1-800-227-2345 or visit cancer.org.

soars with his own wings.

-William Blake

LIKE MANKIND No bird soars too high if he

I FEEL JESUS

I feel Jesus, I feel sweet peace, and I feel refuge from all life's storms. I feel his presence all around me and He will keep me within his arms. There were times when I felt so empty, but darkness filled up my troubled mind. But when I met Him how my life changed. Now those old feelings are left behind like a vessel which once was broken. He has mended my shattered life and in dim heart He raised the curtain, removed the darkness and sent in high light.

There's a lot to like about fishing with paddle boats

FRANKFORT, Ky. – Canoes, kayaks and float boats are quiet, light, maneuverable, environmentally friendly and can be launched almost anywhere. There's a lot to like about paddle-powered fishing boats.

"Kentucky is blessed with a large number of small streams that offer excellent fishing during the summer months," said Ryan Oster, federal aid coordinator for the fisheries division of the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. "Many streams are lightly fished, and anglers will find that fish are aggressive because water in streams is often cooler."

In fact, Kentucky has over 8,000 miles of streams that offer quality fisheries, many of which are tree-canopied waterways off the beaten path. Some small public lakes are also ideal for paddle-powered boats since the use of gasoline-powered motors is prohibited. "The Department helps deverop access to streams using boating access federal funding from the Sport Fish Restoration Act. Historically, boating access funds could only be used to develop access sites and related facilities that benefited boats with gasoline powered engines. Recently, the use of these funds has been expanded to include all boat types, including those without gasoline-powered engines such as canoes and kayaks," said Oster. "Some of the streams we are looking at closely to develop access include the Green River, Licking River, Kentucky River and the Floyd's Fork of the Salt River."

Sport Fish Restoration funds come from excise taxes placed on the sale of fishing equipment and motor boat fuels. State fish and wildlife agencies that receive this funding are mandated to spend a minimum of 15 percent of their annual apportionment on boating access projects.

"Limited funds are available, but access for paddle-powered boats is a lot less costly to build and less land - usually one-half acre or less - is needed, compared to what it typically takes to build a boat ramp," Oster explained.

Access for paddle-powered boats is typically a parking lot and an area where paddlers can drag their boats down to the water. On steep-sided banks, a slide is built, with steps down to the water.

Anglers are reminded that permission from the landowner is required to cross private land to access streams or lakes. Persons who fail to obtain permission may be cited for trespassing.

Sales of paddle-powered

downturn. While new power boat sales declined 10 percent in 2010, according to data released by the National Marine Manufacturers' Association (NMMA), fishing kayaks, in particular, have become one of the fastest–growing segments of this small boat market.

These shallow draft boats first became popular in coastal areas, but anglers' use of these boats on freshwater lakes and rivers has grown in popularity. The sit-on-top and the hybrid "open boat" designs seem to have the largest following among anglers. These styles offer a way to gain access to shallow creeks, remote wetlands, small lakes and ponds that are either off limits to big boats or too shallow for them to navigate.

From a practical standpoint, paddle-powered boats are a good value. Their purchase price and long-term operating costs are thousands of dollars less than a traditional sport fishing boat powered by an outboard motor, and rigged with an electric trolling motor, livewell, electronic depth find-

selling for less than $1,200.
Extras that paddlers will need to buy include a paddle, a life jacket, and roof rack is needed to transport the boat on top of a passenger car.

A pickup truck might be the ideal vehicle for transporting a fishing canoe, kayak or float boat. With the tailgate down, there's plenty of room to carry a boat in an 8-foot truck bed. Using 1-inch ratchet straps is the most convenient and reliable way to tie down a boat to a roof rack or secure it in the bed of a pickup.

There are other expenses that simply don't apply to paddle-powered boats such as boat registration fees, property taxes, fuel, and engine maintenance costs. In Kentucky and many other states, paddle-powered boats are exempt from registration.

Paddle-powered boats offer some health benefits, too. With all that paddling anglers work their arm muscles and burn some calories as well.

Outfitters across Kentucky rent kayaks and canoes for public use and give an angler and idea of how these boats perform. Try one of these boats this summer and enjoy green, affordable fishing.

MORGAN COUNTY FOOTBALL

Cougars open practice in high heat, but with higher expectations

By David Patrick

The heat and humidity may not feel like football weather, but coach Brian Turner and the Morgan County Cougars officially opened practice this week in preparation for the 2012 season.

An impressive group of 40 players took the field, which is the largest group Turner has assembled on opening day in his four years on the job. The core of this team is a solid group of upperclassman, which is making for productive and efficient practices.

"Everything fell in place on the first night," said the Cougar head coach. "The leadership from our older guys is really showing through and I'm seeing good form and technique.

Our practices are going exceptionally well."

After last year's team tied a school-record with eight wins, expectations are high for the new season. Despite having every piece of football equipment destroyed by March's devastating tornado, Turner has his team focused on the task at hand--physical and mental preparation to play winning football.

"This team is very upbeat and embraces the challenge to bounce back from adversary," Turner said. "These kids have taken the field fully aware of what's expected of them. We want to play great football and represent Morgan County at the highest level possible. It's an exciting time for us."

Also exciting for Turner and his team: brand new football gear that is making its way to West Liberty. The players will be outfitted in Under Armor uniforms and state-of-the-art equipment, which is a special treat for players that have endured so much turmoil.

"During the tornado, we lost nearly $100,000 worth of football equipment, so having new gear means a lot to these kids," Turner said. "We're still waiting on our new helmets to get here, although we've been told they've already been shipped. Our players are looking forward to having new stuff and we appreciate everything that's been done to help this program get back on its feet."

The Cougars are practicing every night from 6 to 9 p.m. at the high school. Turner says the experience of this team has been evident early.

"I'm so impressed with our maturity and confidence of this team". These kids are playing with speed and aggressiveness, which is crucial to achieve the level of success we're hoping for. I know it's early, but I like what I see".

The Cougars will take the field in about three weeks with a scheduled first scrimmage on August 10 at Betsy Layne. Morgan will be the first opposing team to play on the school's new turf field.
